

Call for Papers, Panels and Workshops for the CONISAR 2009 Conference and JISAR Journal

Join us for the 2nd Annual Conference on Information Systems Applied Research (CONISAR). The second year of this conference will focus on research dealing with real-world practical applications of information sciences, systems, and technology. It will provide a valuable forum for both researchers and practitioners. CONISAR is the sponsor of JISAR a new peer reviewed journal.

Authors may submit their manuscripts to both CONISAR and JISAR when submitting to the conference. In addition there will be a Doctoral Consortium to provide an opportunity for PhD students to gain valuable feedback and help in their dissertation process.

Join us in Washington DC for CONISAR 2:
November 5 to 8, 2009
